Sudden Epidemic.

Something in the nature of an epidemic occurred this week among the women of Richmond. Speaker Byrd. of counsel for E. F. Daniel, the bank president of Charlotte county, related the story on his return to Richmond last night.

last night.

It seems that five of the Richmonders, most of whom were prominent men, who were summoned as veniremen in the case, wrote to the judge of the court saying that their wives were dangerously III, and that it would be impossible for them to leave their homes. It is understood that all of them are now on the road to recovery.

Abandonment of the former plans for the science hall at the new Fredericksburg Normal School was decided upon yesterday at a meeting of the grounds and building committee of the board of trustees. An entirely new set of plans will be prepared by Charles M. Robinson, the architect. A contract for the building under the old plans was awarded several months ago, but has been abandoned. The new plans are to be ready by May 16.

The meeting, which was held in the assembly-room of the State Board of Education at the Capitol, was attended by Peter J. White, chairman: Delegrate Alden Bell, of Cuipper; Dr. J. A. C. C. Chandler, of Richmond, R. H. L. Chichester, of Falmouth and Superintendent J. D. Eggleston, Jr., of the Department of Public Instruction.

Several inquiries have come to the Governor's office recently asking as to the area of the Capitol Square. The latest hails from Pierre, S. D., and it is supposed that that State is preparing to get something in the way of a Capitol Square that will begin to compare with that of the Old Dominion. Colonel John W. Richardson, Superintendent of Public Grounds and Buildings, thinks that the Square contains twelve acres. How Big Is the Square?
